INTERNAL QUALITY ASSURANCE CELL (IQAC)

Report for the year 2017-2018

Every Institution strives persistently towards Quality and our Institution is no exception. Efforts are taken to augment to the next level year on year. This year too witnessed accomplishment of such an endeavor. Many programmes and events were held for the development of the staff and students.

Following were the programmes organized in the academic year 2017- 2018.

Training on Research Methodology through SPSS Software –

09th September, 2017

A Faculty Development Programme was organized by IQAC on 9th September, 2017. Mr. Prasad. K, a trainer in Analytics took a session on the topics- Data Management, Analytical tools available in SPSS and Interpreting Result Analysis. It was a day's programme conducted in the Computer Lab. A hands-on practice session helped each staff to work practically with a computer, by learning the data collection process and analysis tools. It was an informative and interactive session.

Workshop on Communication by Cambridge University - 6th October, 2017

IQAC and the Department of English conducted a half a day workshop on enhancing the communicative skills for the students of B. Com and B.A in collaboration with Cambridge University. The students participated actively and involved enthusiastically. Students appreciated this program and expressed their eagerness to attend such programmes in the future.

Be Bold for Change - 8th March, 2018

IQAC invited an eminent speaker Dr. Vijila Edwin Kennedy from KCT Institute of Technology, Coimbatore, to give a talk on Women Empowerment to celebrate International Women's Day. This was a huge success as the speaker took the students on her stride motivating them through her speech and gave tips about how they could hone their skills while on academic pursuits.

Techniques of Publishing a Journal - 20th March, 2018

Dr. Raja Jeba Singh Professor of Commerce in St. Joseph's College of Commerce, has years of experience as an editor of International Journal, conducted an hour's workshop for those who were pursuing and completed Ph.D. The discussions involved identifying a valid journal, the issues of publication, and the websites to publish papers in International Journals which would also help to assess the quality of the Publication houses. The session also covered the steps involved in getting an ISSN number for the Journals.

Faculty Research Programme - 27th March, 2018

IQAC conducted a Faculty Research Programme on 27th March 2018, an initiative to enhance the Research culture amongst the faculty. It was conducted under the guidance and evaluation of the subject expert and all the faculty of all the Departments presented papers.

Other accomplishments:

- Under the guidance of IQAC, faculty members were encouraged to register for Ph. D which is deemed to benefit both the staff and the Institute.
- Introduction of Master degree programs (Commerce and Arts)
- Students participation in presenting and publishing Research papers
- Allotment of exclusive staff room for the Post Graduate faculty by the Management on the recommendation of IQAC.

IQAC contributed in enhancing the quality of various programmes such as Alumni Meet, Sports Meet, and Women's Day etc. This year was a year of accomplishments for IQAC as the Institution bagged ranks and several initiatives were taken and handled successfully. The Cell expresses its gratitude to the Management for implementing and taking immediate actions in the areas which required their association.
