Add-on programme

1. Soft skill programme

For the academic year 2020-2021, value added course was organized for the 5th semester B.Com students through online mode which was conducted via Zoom video conferencing app. The programme was organized from 4th August 2020 to 1st September 2020. The classes were scheduled every day for an hour from Monday to Friday. The resource persons for the add on course were Mr. Prem Kumar and Mr. Anil Kumar.

Mr. Prem Kumar is an independent training consultant who has mastered in the field of psychology and has also excelled as a behavioral and life skills trainer for many young minds. The topics covered by him during the course were winning arguments; body language, postures and gestures; Professional etiquettes, traits, Qualities and general hygiene. Other topics discussed includes attitude, environment, education, behavior, and e-mail etiquettes. This life skill training plays a vital role in the development of the students behavior in a positive manner.

Mr. Anil Kumar., MBA (PhD.), Assistant professor, PG Department of Commerce, took over the technical sessions of the programme by imparting knowledge to students on topics such as SAS-Statistical Analytical System 9.2., which also included SQL-Structured Query Language, Time series and Excel. Problems were solved under these topics and also helped students to acquire knowledge on software for decision making analysis which has a growing demand in recent times. On the whole, the intended cause of the programme was served to the students effectively.
